<sup>1</sup> It is the student's responsibility to check the language requirements for the partner universities they are interested in. General information can be found at archip.eu/partner-institutions, however, the student is obliged to check whether this info is up to date. ARCHIP does not bear any responsibility for potential exclusion of a student from partner university's admission process due to their insufficient language skills.

<sup>2</sup> Please be sure to check the start and end date of semester at the partner institution. Let the ARCHIP study department know if there are any problematic overlaps.

<sup>3</sup> ARCHIP will nominate you to the first university you are interested in. If the spot is already taken by another student according to the selection criteria or if you are for some reason unable to apply to the first university, you will be nominated to the following university that you specified.
